---------------	--

A Certificate of Scrapping transfers ownership of an abandoned, scrapped vehicle. To complete this form:

- Box 1: Enter the vehicle's registration status in Box 1 above.
Box 2: Enter the vehicle's VIN, year, make, model and body style. This information must correspond to what was entered into LEIN when the vehicle was taken into custody.
Box 3: Enter the law enforcement agency having custody of the vehicle and the vehicle's condition.
Box 4: Enter the towing agency, used vehicle parts dealer or scrap metal processor to whom the law enforcement agency releases the vehicle.
Box 5: Sign and date the form to certify compliance with Section 252b.
Box 6: Enter new owner information for the Reassignment of Certification of Scrapping – to be filled out by the towing agency, used vehicle parts dealer or scrap metal processor if the vehicle is sold.

Please note: If the vehicle is registered or titled in Michigan, the owner and any secured party have 20 days from the date of the notice sent by the Michigan Department of State to redeem the vehicle. If the vehicle is not redeemed within 20 days, the law enforcement agency may release the vehicle to a towing agency, used vehicle parts dealer or scrap metal processor. Unregistered or untitled vehicles are released immediately.
